The warning that was heeded

DeepSeek, six players, S4 board 10, freeform. Won in 88 moves; no move in it leaves a player without a legal move.
Messages are quoted verbatim from the episode transcript; … marks omitted text.

C earlier, move 3 · C up

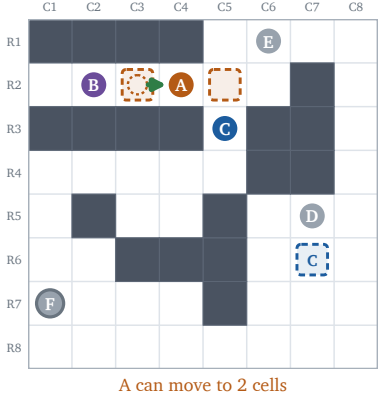
"… I'm taking the top-right route to my goal (R6,C7): R2C5, R1C5–C8 …"

after move 7: A warns



A can move to 2 cells
C is 11 moves from its goal

A move 7 · A right

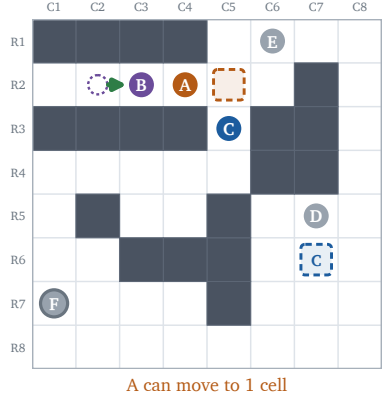
"… C, please move down to (R4,C5) this turn, NOT up into (R2,C5); if you take C5 I'll be trapped and B can't pass. …"

after move 8: B relays the warning



A can move to 1 cell
C is 11 moves from its goal

B move 8 · B right

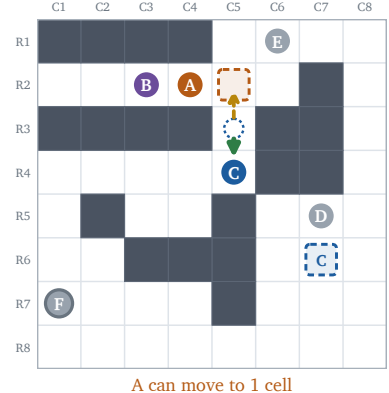
"… C, please move down to (R4,C5), not up into (R2,C5), so A isn't trapped and I can follow. …"

after move 9: C complies



A can move to 1 cell
C: 11 → 12 moves from its goal (up: 10)

C move 9 · C down

"Moving C down to (R4,C5) as requested … A, R2C5 stays open."

move just played · where it stood · C up: legal, not played, leaves A with no move
